

Free-lance, Brussels-Based Public Affairs Consultant

Open Consultants

Brussels, Belgium

Open Consultants is a Berlin-based group of strategic and organizational consultants with the mission to advance global health & development. We provide the full range of strategic, policy, organizational, and analytical support to leading global health and development organizations. We are currently looking for a Brussels-based freelance Consultant to support our work at EU level.

We work with leading organizations in international development and global health, from large public and private sector organizations to foundations and non-governmental organizations, such as the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, the Wellcome Trust, Gavi, the Vaccine Alliance and the World Bank, among many others.

We are aspirational and put ourselves up to new challenges. We want to learn every day and invest in our development. We care about each other as a team and always take the time for some fun and laughter.

Sounds appealing? Then come join us.

As a Consultant, you will support our work with several of our clients to implement their global health strategy with EU stakeholders at the Commission, Council and wider civil society. You will provide intelligence, conduct research and policy analysis, draft policy documents, and actively support the engagement of our clients on EU level.

Ideally, we are looking for someone to support us with 8-10 days per month (this negotiable). Our open and collaborative working culture provides the space to bring in your ideas and expertise. You will collaborate with a diverse and fun team that looks out for each other.

What you will bring to the team:

- Experience in public affairs at the EU level, vis-a-vis the Parliament, the Council and the European Commission
- Background in development policy at the EU level and an in-depth knowledge of the EU's development policy priorities, ideally with an understanding of global health, or willingness to develop expertise in this area
- Experience in campaigns and advocacy work
- Strong networks in the Council, Parliament, relevant DGs in the European Commission and civil society organizations
- Previous work in consulting, government affairs or in one of the relevant EU institutions

- Advanced degree (Master or equivalent) in Political Science, Public Affairs, Global Public Health, Economics or another relevant field from a major university
- Excellent problem-solving, writing and presentation skills
- Proficiency in Excel, MS Powerpoint
- Fluent in English. Knowledge of French, German or other EU languages would also be desirable.
- An entrepreneurial spirit and a good sense of humor.

Please send your CV to info@openconsultants.org at your earliest convenience. We will review resumes as they come in. Any questions? Ping us!
